

Conclusion

Panelists:

- Wojciech Wrochna, Secretary of State, Plenipotentiary for Strategic Energy Infrastructure, Ministry of Industry, PL
- Ulla Engelmann, Director Nuclear Safety and Security, EC JRC
- Abderrahim Al Mazouzi, SNETP, FR
- Marcin Kardas, Deputy Director, Innovation & Commercialisation, NCBJ, PL

Moderators:

- Seif Ben Hadj Hassine, DG RTD, European Commission
- Pau Aragón, Spanish YGN, Jovenes Nucleares

Scope

Day 4, 15.05.2025

- To create a platform for discussion, dialogue and networking
- To highlight achievements in nuclear fission research and education
- To foster visibility of the Euratom research and training programme.
- To interact within parallel sessions, exhibitions, and matchmaking interview.
- To reward excellence in nuclear research and innovation.

Conclusion

- Fantastic and brilliant organisation!
- Thank you Poland: special Thanks to Agnieszka and Tomasz
- Thank you Euratom: special thanks to Roger and Seif
- We celebrate the power of Collaboration among researchers, policymakers, industry leaders, academia and young innovators, but also European association and SNETP
- Challenges are massive but very exciting.
- Huge opportunities! For Innovation : Altogether is better!
- we are advancing a cleaner, safer, and more innovative energy future.
- Enjoy the visits tomorrow, enjoy your stay in Warsaw and have a safe journey back home!
- See you next year: SNETP FORUM2026
- And see you at the next 12th edition!

A global audience

550+ Participants, 49 Nationalities

Euratom4U iOS Android App.
& desktop version

51
Companies

35
Universities

29
Gov. Organisations

28
Research Centres

13
NGOs